District 7 School Board Member Lubby Navarro honored educator Susan Ryan for 40 years of service to the students and families of Miami-Dade County Public Schools (M-DCPS) ahead of her May 29th retirement during a special recognition at the School Board Meeting of May 13, 2015.

"Susan Ryan is a shining example of the world-class educators who work with our students," said Ms. Navarro. "Her commitment to excellence has enriched the lives of countless students."

A proud product of M-DCPS, Ms. Ryan is a graduate of Coral Park Senior High School. From 1974 through 2015, she taught theatre, speech and language arts at Palmetto, McMillan, Southwood and Hammocks middle schools. For 30 of her 40 years in teaching, Ms. Ryan has taught at Hammocks Middle, located in District 7. Here she also served as the department chair for electives.
