

WHEREAS, on Saturday, April 30, 2016, the community gathered to commemorate the 30th anniversary of Kenwoods Outdoor Learning Center; and

WHEREAS, Kenwood K-8 Center is built on a 16-acre hammock called the Kenwoods. Through the combined efforts and vision of Earl Scull, Bob Ross and Henry Block, Kenwoods has become a vital interactive learning center known as the Kenwoods Outdoor Learning Center; and

WHEREAS, the Center flourished through community involvement of monetary donations, plants, services and labor. Kenwoods Outdoor Learning Center has allowed students and the community to recreate and protect Florida plants and habitat; and

WHEREAS, at the heart of Kenwoods Outdoor Learning Center is Tori's Treehouse, a loving tribute to a Kenwood K-8 Center student who lost her battle to cancer in 1988; and

WHEREAS, Kenwoods Outdoor Learning Center is to be commended for continuing its three decade legacy of excellence in outdoor learning. The Center has solidified its position as an important Miami landmark;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT:

This proclamation be presented to Kenwoods Outdoor Learning Center for serving the community for 30 years.

Presented this thirtieth day of April, A.D. 2016

Lubby Navarro
School Board Member, District 7